

“Nothing dies faster than a new idea in a closed mind”

Mind is like a parachute. It functions only when open. Closed mind is one, which does not accept change/new ideas without even giving it a fair consideration. People with narrow outlook and strong mindsets will ensure that new ideas are given faster death.

TFW- 52